Editorial

Paul's letter to the Ephesian church deals with topics at the very core of what it means to be a Christian—both in faith and in practice—regardless of any particular problem in the community. He begins the letter by laying out specific theological truths and completes it with the result, application and lifestyle for the Church that stands on those truths. It's in this second half that we find our specific prayer. Walking through these seven verses, we discover a subtle pathway.

14 For this reason I kneel before the Father, 15 from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name.

This is such an important beginning point for our discipleship. It's the foundation. It's the identity piece. It's the truth that who we are is because of who He is. The fact that our name comes from His not only defines where we begin, but where we're headed. That's a solid ground for us to root

St Bede's Church has its own Book of Remembrance. If you would like to add the name of a loved one in the Book of Remembrance, please see Judith Kelleway or one of the Wardens who would be happy to arrange that for you. If you would also like to donate flowers to the Church in memory at any time, Sharron would be happy to arrange them for you.

HOLIDAY FOOD PROVISION SURVEY

Holiday hunger is a situation that occurs when a child's household is, or will become, food insecure during the school holidays. It is estimated that 3 million children are at risk of holiday hunger in the UK. Holiday Hunger is a particular problem for households whose children are in receipt of free school meals during term time, but there will be children facing food insecurity who are not in receipt of free school meals.

Please take time to donate to the Grub Tub at the back of Church as much as possible.

Our Church depends very heavily on fundraising as well as regular giving to keep our Church afloat. We work very hard to put on different events, but we need these events to be supported if they are to be successful in raising funds and providing opportunities to share fellowship as a Church.
