Being Thankful

1 Corinthians 15:57

Are some of your days filled with worry or disappointment? It's so easy to get hung up on all the negative things in our lives. Let's take time to reflect on and give thanks to God for all His blessings in our lives.

Whatever we are doing, working, shopping, eating, spending time with friends or family, let's remember to take time to focus on God's goodness, count our blessings and notice all the grace, favour and love that God has given us. Psalm 95:2 says to "come before His presence with thanksgiving, shout joyfully to Him with psalms"

The Bible says that we show our love for God through our actions toward other people. Reach out to those around you and share His love and forgiveness with them. You are blessed to be a blessing to others.
