Forgive One Another

Reading: Colossians 3: 5-17

We are called to bear with and forgive each other, just as Jesus forgives us. In this passage of Colossians, Paul contrasts the old and new self, how we are enabled to let go of anger and bitterness and forgive each other from the heart. He draws a compelling picture of what a forgiving community looks like and the challenge for us to be like this ourselves.

FORGIVE ONE ANOTHER

'God has chosen you and made you his holy people. He loves you. So always do these things: Show mercy to others; be kind, humble, gentle, and patient. Do not be angry with each other, but forgive each other. If someone does wrong to you, then forgive him. Forgive each other because the Lord forgave you. Do all these things; but most important, love each other. Love is what holds you all together in perfect unity. Colossians 3:12-14
