Encourage One Another

(1 Thessalonians 5:11)

Reading: Acts 4: 32-37

Note: the command to encourage one another in 1 Thess 5 v 11 is not found in our reading. But our reading in Acts highlights the life of the early church and the importance of encouraging one another as seen in the example of Barnabas (Son of Encouragement).

OUR CURATES ARRIVAL

Many thanks for your generosity in getting things together for our curates' arrival. The appeal is now closed

GOODBYE CAPTAIN JANICE!

In the next few weeks Capt Janice Lahouel of the Salvation Army will be leaving Bolton for a new and exciting adventure!

She has the honour and privilege to be appointed from July to serve God through the Salvation Army as Corps Officer (church leader) of Bonheur Ville Corps (church), Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso, West Africa.

She will of course be very sad to leave Bolton South, but she is also excited to see what God has in store for her.

I spoke with her on Thursday and asked her to keep in touch and share her experiences with us. I am sure you will join me and the Ministry Team in wishing Janice God's grace and protection as she embarks on this new chapter in her life! m

ENCOURAGE ONE ANOTHER

'Therefore, encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.' 1 Thessalonians 5:11

Words have the power to hurt, but they also have the power to help and make us feel good.

The verse from 1 Thessalonians talks about how God wants us to use our words and actions to help others. The word "encourage" in the dictionary means to "give courage, hope or confidence to; to give support to or help." We can encourage people in the things we say and the things we do.

Can you find someone this week who needs to be encouraged? It may be a friend, a family member, a neighbour, a person that you know in school. How might you encourage them? Perhaps you could write them an encouraging note or draw them a picture to give help to build them up and give them courage, hope and confidence.
